THE TOURNAMENT

Jack, his friend Frank and his sister Harriet are walking in the woods. They see a royal notice.

Look!
A royal notice.
There will be an archery contest and a race competition
next month.

The prize
is a precious golden cup. Wow!

Take part,
Jack! You are a very good archer.

You can also run very fast! They call you Flash.
Can I come with you?

My bow is old.

We can buy a new one.
Let's go!

Jack, Frank and Harriet go to the village shop to buy a new bow.

Hello, dear.
How are you?

Hello, Jane.
I'm great.
I'm happy.

I need a bow
for the Royal tournament.
How much is it?

How can I help you?

It's ten gold coins.
Go and win!

Thank you!

An elegant boy enters.

Oh... Jack with a new bow.

How old are you?
Aren't you too young?

Hello, George.
This bow is for the Royal tournament

I'm not too young.
I'm 14.

My brother is a great athlete.
He can run
very fast.

And he is a very good archer.

He can run really fast
and he is a great archer.
I must stop him!

7 days later Jack is training for the tournament.
A boy is spying on him. It is George.
